

Charles Frank Saathoff

June 10, 1936 - August 17, 2025

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Charles Frank Saathoff, 89, of Olive Branch, MS, passed away on Sunday, August 17, 2025. There are no services scheduled at this time.

Charles was born on June 10, 1936, in Greencastle, IN. He served his country honorably in the United States Army. Charles worked in facility maintenance for IBM for 40 years, but he also did his own carpentry work on the side.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Margaret Saathoff and Frank Charles Saathoff; sisters, Betty Stewart, Ruby Black, Amy Insley; brother, Russell Saathoff; and great-granddaughter, Paetyn Mae McCormick.

Charles is survived by his wife of almost 68 years, Mary Ann Saathoff of Olive Branch, MS; daughter, Elizabeth (Jason) Gregory of Olive Branch; grandchildren, Brett Michael (Kristen) Watkins, Ashley Diane (Hayden) McCormick, and Colten (Allison) Gregory; great-grandchildren, Beckham Buechler, Mia Watkins, Addison Watkins, Lauren Watkins, Oaklynn McCormick, Tate McCormick, and expecting Gracie Gregory in December of 2025.

In lieu of traditional flowers, donations may be made in Charles Saathoff's name to Destiny Center of Olive Branch (<https://www.facebook.com/mobiledestinycenter/>).

Online condolences may be left on his tribute wall at www.colemanfuneralhomeob.com.

“ I am so very sorry, Mary Ann and children. Chuck was such a hard worker. He even washed windows. I used to watch him while I was in the pool across the street from their place. I miss seeing you, Mary Ann, fusing with your flowers. Prayers for you and your wonderful family.
