Elizabeth “Faye” Lancaster, 85, of Olive Branch, MS, passed away on Friday, February 21, 2025. A graveside service will be held Thursday, February 27, 2025 at 3:00 p.m. at Autumn Woods Memorial Park. Pastor Audra Gaines will officiate.

Faye was born on December 8, 1939, in Rome, GA. She was a graphic artist and owned her own screen printing company. She was a member of Maples Memorial United Methodist Church. Faye was a talented artist. She painted beautiful portraits and pictures and carved stunning wood carvings. Faye was a skilled singer-songwriter and loved any reason to dance or sing. She was an entertainer and enjoyed performing for people. Due to her love for entertaining others, she jokingly referred to herself as a “ham.” Whenever Faye wasn’t painting or working on any of her art, she enjoyed spending time outside gardening and was an avid reader; she especially loved Stephen King novels. Faye's vibrant personality will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Faye was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas Wayne Lancaster, Sr.; son, Anthony Wayne Dunlap; step-sons, Thomas Wayne Lancaster, Jr. and Scott Lancaster; mother, Mary Jim Rosenblatt; and father, Paul G. Rosenblatt.

Faye is survived by her daughter, Kim Dunlap O'Neill of Olive Branch; stepson, Cliff Lancaster of Olive Branch; granddaughters, Allison Northcutt (Mac) of Olive Branch, and Christy Dunlap; grandsons, Andrew McGregor (Flora) of Olive Branch, and Eric Moore (Jenny) of Nashville, TN; great-granddaughters, Xander Blakley of Olive Branch, and Cinthia McGregor of Olive Branch; great-grandson, Randy McGregor of Olive Branch; and brothers, Gary Rosenblatt (Linda) of Germantown, TN, and Charles Rosenblatt (Cindy) of Olive Branch.

“ Faye, I sure did enjoy signing with you all those years at karaoke and when you were in the band. You were so creative with your songwriting and you had such great harmonies too. As much as I will cherish my memories of singing and performing with you, I will cherish our friendship even more. You were such an amazing friend and I will miss you. But I know you are in heaven now singing for the Lord and with others who got there before you like Johnny and Zeke from the band. Keep your vocals warmed up and ready and we'll be along shortly. Love you much girl.

“ I will be forever grateful for the love of our beloved Mommy Taye. She took me in and loved me as a daughter and my kids as her grands. When she didn't have to. The same as my Mom did for Kim and hers. Like my Mom she gave us advice we didn't always want to hear, but it came from a place of love. She gave us jobs and even turned an office into a playroom for our kids so we could bring them with us. When I returned to school she let me come in and work nights on my own. She saw me through so many hard times and good times that it would be impossible to list them all. Like my own Mom, I'll miss her forever. They were the foundation that we were built on. We were all enriched by her unbeatable spirit.
