

London Thompson Brock

September 30, 1987 - April 2, 2026

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

London Beverly Thompson Brock passed away on April 2, 2026, leaving behind a legacy that is anything but quiet. London did not simply live, but she shined, she laughed loudly, she loved fiercely, and she made sure everyone around her felt it. Friends are invited to a visitation with the family on Tuesday, April 7, 2026, from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch. The funeral service will be held the following day, also at Coleman Funeral Home, at 10:00 a.m., with the graveside service to follow at Autumn Woods Memorial Park. Pastor Troy Sowden of CityChurch for Olive Branch will officiate.

London was a woman whose presence filled every room. Her spirit was vibrant, her heart generous, and her personality unforgettable. She had a way of turning ordinary moments into something special, whether through her laughter, her honesty, or the way she showed up for the people she loved. She also had a deep love for animals and a tender heart for every creature she met, especially the family dogs, Jack and Ombré, who brought her so much joy.

She is survived by her devoted husband, Patrick Brock, who has stood beside her through life's journey, and her precious children, Addison Bailey

Thompson and Asher Lafay Thompson, who were the center of her world. She also leaves behind her stepchildren, Ian Brock, Austin Brock, and Dawson Brock, whom she loved as her own.

London is lovingly remembered by her mother, Julie Mills, and stepfather, Robert Mills. She is also survived by her grandparents, Beverly Clement, Martin and Vicky Gardner, and Virginia Mills; her siblings, Morgan Thompson Reeves, Wyatt Thompson, Colton Thompson, and Jordan Mills; along with many aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends whose lives she touched in lasting ways.

She was preceded in death by her father, Wayland Thompson, Jr., and her beloved grandfather, James Lafay Clement, Jr., known affectionately as “Papa Jim.”

To know London was to know joy, strength, and authenticity. She lived boldly, spoke truthfully, and loved without limits. Her life was a reminder to be unapologetically yourself and to embrace every moment with passion.

Above all, London loved Jesus with her whole heart. Her faith was strong, steady, and deeply rooted. Today, we find comfort in knowing she is at peace, home with her Savior, Jesus Christ, and embraced in the presence of God, where there is no pain and only everlasting joy.

“I am with you always.” – Matthew 28:20

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss a special lady, Miss London. As a patient at the office she worked at I got to know her and was thrilled when she was my Medical assistant when I visited the medical office. I enjoyed our banter and her sharing her children's school activities. She always made me feel welcome and greeted me with a smile. I will always treasure my time with her. May God bless her children, family, and friends during this delicate time of loss. Prayers are lifted. . .

“ To the family of London Thompson Brock

We were deeply saddened to hear of the passing of your beloved London.

London was more than someone we knew—she was a friend whose warmth, kindness, and presence touched so many of us. She brought light into every space she entered, and her generosity of spirit will not be forgotten. We feel truly grateful to have known her and to have shared in her laughter, her care, and her friendship.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May you find comfort in the love that surrounds you and in the beautiful memories you hold close.
