“ I love Ann so much! She is one of the kindest and truly Christian ladies I know. She led a Bible study for many years that I was blessed to be a part of. She taught and she listened. Truly listened. And cared so much for everyone. She kept me grounded and turned toward Jesus when I have been going through my own storm. She put everyone else first. I will always treasure her kind and loving spirit. Her wisdom and thirst for our Father. My prayers and heart are with her family and everyone who has been touched by her faith. With much Love...
