“ My favorite memory of Gwen was how sweet & kind she was. She was a wonderful mother & grandmother! She truly loved her family. She and her sister Pat were so close. I remember when they would talk every morning on the phone first thing. We had some great times together, taking trips and going shopping ! She was always taking care of everyone and had such a heart for others. When my youngest son Patrick was little he would call her and say “ Aunt Gwen can I come to your house “ ? And she would say “come on baby”. There wasn’t a child that didn’t love Aunt Gwen. We all did and feel so blessed just to have known her and specially blessed because she was our “ Aunt Gwen”. How blessed we were that God chose her to be family, Thank You God for such a blessing ! She was truly special, and we will miss her! Cherish every moment ! “Until we meet again” ❤️
