Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Patricia Fay Brisentine, 78, of Holly Springs, MS, on December 8, 2024. There will be a private Celebration of Life at a later date.

Patricia was born on July 8, 1946 in Trenton, TN to May Evelyn and Woodrow Wilson Slaughter. Ms. Pat was the foundation of comfort and joy to many, dedicating most of her time to caring for her family, friends, and her loyal furry companion, Lady. She was well-respected in her community for her exceptional management skills, having overseen multiple hotels and the housekeeping departments of nursing facilities during her younger years. Patricia was a selfless individual who devoted her life to serving others. As a mother of 10, she adopted six of her grandchildren in her 50s and embarked on a new chapter in life, never faltering in her dedication. She was a vibrant and dynamic person who could effortlessly balance firmness with compassion. Though her physical presence may be gone, her legacy of love, kindness, and generosity will live on.

Left to cherish Patricia's memory are her daughters, Starla Plymel of Myrtle, MS, and Drema Brisentine of New Albany, MS; sons, David Brisentine of Holly Springs, and Randy Brisentine of Slayden, MS; 14 grandchildren; and 29 great-grandchildren. Patricia was predeceased by her parents, May and Woodrow Slaughter.

In lieu of traditional flowers, donations in her name can be made to the Tunica County no-kill shelter. www.nokillnetwork.org
