“ Robert was a very dear friend and neighbor in Olive Branch. Our dog Jazmine loved him and would watch for him to come home. On nice days we would let her run out to greet him. He will be missed.

“ Robert was one of the kindest souls I have ever met...he was my cousin and we spent a lot of times together as children and as young teenagers...I will truly miss his sweet face but I know where he is and I will see him again

“ I first met Robert when we were in the 11th grade at Olive Branch High School. He was one of those who took the time to get to know the new kids (like me) at school. We also attended 1st Baptist Church, Olive Branch, MS. together years later. He was always so kind. He will be greatly missed. ☐ Prayers for his family!! 🙏
