“ sandra is my grandmother. even when she was sick and in pain, she always wanted to hear about how i was and what i was doing. i never got to visit her much because we live so far away, but i will always remember how much she loved me. the stuffed dog she gave me sits on my bed every day. it hurts all the time to see my dad struggling to grieve, because she was his mom, and he always tells me i look just like her. i really miss her. she'll never get to see me get my first car, or graduate high school, or get a job. but i hope she's watching over me right now and is proud of me, and i know that she's at peace. ”

“ Sandy truly was the sweetest person you would ever meet! Although she was a lot older than me as a cousin (she was really close to my mom), I will always remember how kind she was to me and how she has checked on me throughout the years since my Mom passed. She struggled for years with her illness but NEVER complained. You will be missed cuz but so happy you are FREE FROM PAIN!!!
