

Tamara Ervin Faulkner

August 5, 1974 - December 10, 2024

Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Tamara Ervin Faulkner was born August 5, 1974, to the late Martha Ervin-a loving mother, nurse, and caregiver. She passed away at her home on Tuesday, December 10, 2024.

Tammy gave birth to her very beautiful daughter Shanteshia Ervin. For years Tammy worked very hard to take care of her family. She always found a way to keep the bills paid, a roof over their heads, and food on their table. She made sure they had everything they needed-at times it was by providing words of advice or just a listening ear.

Tammy was a loving person who was concerned about the plight of others. In addition to caring for the needs of her own family, she would help others when she could.

After working 13 years at Lebonheur Children's Hospital, she decided to take a break from this field of work. For several years, she and her husband worked together to grow their construction business. Always looking for ways to do more. Tammy decided to get involved in real estate. She devoted herself to this endeavor. Shortly thereafter she was able to pass the Tennessee and Mississippi real estate exams and become a realtor.

Tammy loved life and people. She had a beautiful smile and warm friendly personality that attracted people to her wherever she went. She had a down-to-earth way of expressing herself. Anyone who spent much time around her would have heard her say at least one of her three favorite expressions, "The simple fact is..."; "What you said!", and "You show know what to say!".

Another way Tammy showed her love of life was in her enjoyment of food. There were many foods that she liked. She enjoyed a perfectly cooked steak, well-seasoned shrimp, and load baked potatoes. However, at the top of the list of her favorite foods were southern fried chicken and hot wings. Those always brought a big smile to her face.

As is true with many people when the years of their life pass by, Tammy realized that some things in life are more important than others. She understood that joy in life doesn't result from possessing things and agreed that her life would be more rewarding by doing three things: keeping her life simple, enjoying the beauty of creation, and spending quality time with her family and friends.

Tammy loved the times when asked by Steve to pack a bag and let's go on a road trip. Some of her favorite times would be traveling together, talking, laughing, and figuring out where we would stay on our trips. These were truly special occasions to her and Steve. Steve valued these occasions because they allowed him to see how truly beautiful she was.

Tammy is sleeping now, but she continues to live on in the memory of all those who loved and knew her. She left us with many fond memories that we will always cherish. Tammy also leaves a legacy regarding family members who loved her dearly. Her husband, Steve Faulkner, loving daughter and son-in-law, Shanteshia and Rickey Norman Jr. Her two grandsons, Rickey "Tre" and Greyson Norman. Her Aunt Fannie and many friends that stood by her during her battle with cancer.
