Terri Lynn Pollan, 61, of Memphis, TN passed away on December 20, 2024. There are no services scheduled at this time.

Terri was born on March 5, 1963 in Lake Ronkonkoma, New York, a hamlet on Long Island. She had an associate degree in health management and worked as a medical coder for Baptist Memorial Hospital. Terri was married to the love of her life, Greg, for 21 years. She was the founder of New Beginnings Animal Rescue. Terri was passionate about animals, especially cats. She and Greg also provided hospice for sick cats and kittens with leukemia. Terri loved her grandchildren. She was a private person, never wanting any of her family or friends to worry about her or be concerned. She was loved by so many, and there will be a huge void in her absence. Baptist Reynolds Hospice House was such a peaceful, loving, and caring facility. We are so thankful for the care they provided to Terri.

“ I met Terri at an adoption event at Five Below, because it was the launch of their new pet line. Because of her love for cats I fostered and then adopted my cat Jessie. Jessie has been my light in a very dark time during my life, and really has been my emotional support animal! I thank you Terri for your love of cats, because without you I wouldn't have my best friend Jessie.
I know you were greeted by all of the animals that passed before you that you helped. You had such a kind and caring heart for the animals and I'm so thankful for you!

“ Terri, My heart is so saddened by this. I can go back to the 60's when your Aunt my BFF, had many opportunities to spend days with you at your grandparents house. After, moving n going in different directions, we connected via FB, your mom, Jane, your Uncle Bill. It was such a beautiful peice of my life when we all together in distance but a bond nevertheless. My mom n your grandma were good friends. They will welcome you, along with Uncle Bill n Grandpa. Such a beautiful soul as a young girl, into an adult, your ❤️ for animals, shows the compassion in your soul. Your grandchildren such a sweet addition to your circle of life. They are so stinking cute! May your angel wings continue to covet your family, guide them to the paths they need. May you know your sweet sweet soul, will be loved and treasured by all the lives and animals you have touched. Miss you sweet Terri. ❤️ Candy & Ken Occhiogrosso
