“ I just learned of Wallace’s passing. I knew Wallace since college. He was truly one of the finest people I ever knew. I am truly sorry for his loss to his family. Wallace always had a kind word for everyone, and was a devoted and thorough attorney. The Bar was enhanced by his membership, and he was an fine example of the integrity all lawyers aspire to.

“ I am just finding out that Wallace passed and we feel terrible we were unable to make it to his services to honor him and the Lord in his great reuniting. Wallace most definitely lived his life trusting the Lord to guide his steps and shone the light of a true believer. He was a special person in my life that helped us through some hard times and spoke wisdom and kindness over us when we needed it most. We were blessed to be able to run into him at the farmers market not long ago and he always carried a smile despite his health challenges and walked with a purpose. I loved listening to his stories even during very hard times in my life it brought me peace to hear him declare the Lord's mercy and grace. I enjoyed seeing these pictures of his life and family and we are praying for you all and know without a doubt he is with our Father in Heaven.

“ Wallace was consistent about gathering attorney signatures while in Court on Birthday Cards to make sure that particular attorney was honored and had a happy birthday. A very caring person who was always smiling.

“ I really looked forward to Mr. Anderson driving his children and I to school in the mornings. He was such a calm presence and had thought provoking life lesson stories with funny antidotes. I also remember he took us to the video rental store on Fridays and let all us kids pick out movies for the weekend and bought pizza. It was the highlight of my week as a child. His inclusion of me meant a lot to me and gave me a little window into what having a dad might look like. His light will be missed.
